

Attention International Travelers

PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY

Please be sure to follow the procedures below before departing, as it is required by law to do so.
Important Information Regarding Tax Free Products Purchased Today

1. When departing, please carry the tax free product(s) you have purchased with you at all times.

- The tax free product(s) must not be given to anyone else before you leave Japan.
- If you send a tax free product(s) as unaccompanied baggage, you must complete the proper procedures at the customs office.
- If the tax free product(s) is not in your possession prior to departure, you will be required to pay consumption tax.

2. Prior to departure, please show the customs officer the tax free product(s) purchased as well as the "Record of Purchase of Consumption Tax-Exempt for Export Slip" attached to your passport.

- Be sure to inform the customs officer about the tax free product(s) in your baggage before check-in.

After you have purchased the products

Airport, etc.

Customs

Presentation of purchased articles

Presentation of passport

Tax office