◎ The column of "Dependents under 16 years of age" also serves as the column in Application for Dependents of Employment Income Earner, which needs to be submitted to the mayor of municipality via a salary payer, based on the Local Tax Act Article 45-3-2 paragraphs 1 and 2 and Article 317-3-2 paragraphs 1 and 2.

◎ This application is to be submitted for income exemptions such as exemption for dependents and/or exemption for persons with disabilities regarding your salary.
 ◎ This application needs to be submitted even if you have no spouse covered by the withholding exemption, spouse living in the same household who falls under persons with disabilities or dependents.
 ◎ Even if you receive a salary from two salary payers or more, this application can be submitted to only one of them.
 ◎ Read "Notes on the application" or the like on the back side when describing this application.

Attach here Withholding Record, Certificates of Working Student, Documents concerning Relatives and/or Documents concerning Remittances

1. Notes on the application

- (1) Submit this application to the salary payer by the day before you receive the first salary in 2019.
- (2) If any change occurs in the contents described in this application after submission, either submit an application of change or amend the concerned item in this application.
- (3) If you had been employed and obtained new employment before the end of the year, attach a withholding record or the like issued by the previous employer. If you changed the secondary salary to the primary one before the end of the year, attach a withholding record or the like issued by the primary salary payer before the change.
- (4) If you receive a salary from two employers or more and a salary from one employer cannot cover all amounts of (special) exemption for spouse, which is applied to a spouse covered by the withholding exemption, exemption for dependents and exemption for persons with disabilities, you can divide a spouse covered by the withholding exemption and dependents covered by the exemption and submit "Application for Exemption for Dependents concerning Secondary Salary" to other salary payers.
- (5) At year-end adjustment, if (special) exemption for spouse is to be applied, prepare "Application for Exemption for Spouse" in which the amount of (special) exemption for spouse is described and submit it to the salary payer by the day before you receive the last salary in 2019.
- (6) If any relatives set forth below are non-residents (Note 1), attach "Documents concerning relatives" (Note 2) regarding the relatives to this application.
 - a. Dependents qualified for exemption for dependents or persons with disabilities
 - b. A spouse who is covered by the withholding exemption
 - c. A spouse who lives in the same household and is qualified for exemption for persons with disabilities

Further, if exemption for dependents or persons with disabilities is applied regarding relatives who fall under a. and c. above at year-end adjustment, prepare an application for exemption for dependents which describes the fact that the relatives lives in the same household (e.g. remittance amounts or the like), and submit it attaching "Documents concerning remittances" (Note 3) by the day before you receive the last salary in 2019. Otherwise, add remittance amounts or the like in "Fact that he/she lives in the same household" or "Contents at left" of this application and submit it attaching "Documents concerning remittances." Note that, if (special) exemption for spouse is applied regarding a spouse who falls under b. above, you need to submit "Application for Exemption for Spouse" in which the fact that the spouse lives in the same household with you is described, attaching "Documents concerning remittances."

If the "Documents concerning relatives" and "Documents concerning remittances" are written in foreign languages, you need to attach their translations.

(Note 1) "Non-residents" are individuals who possess no domicile in Japan and have continuously had no residence in Japan for one year or more.

 2. "Documents concerning relatives" are the documents mentioned in i) or ii) below and are to prove that the non-residents are your relatives.
 - i) Copies of the supplementary family registers or other documents issued by Japan or local public entities, as well as the copies of the relatives' passports
 - ii) Documents issued by foreign governments or the local public entities of foreign countries, which describe the relatives' names, birthdates and domicile or residence
 3. "Documents concerning remittances" are the documents mentioned below and are to clarify that you paid each non-resident relative for living or educational expenses as needed.
 - i) The documents of financial institutions or their copies, which clarify that you paid the relatives through exchange transactions conducted by the financial institutions
 - ii) The documents of credit card companies or their copies, which clarify that the relatives purchased goods or the like using credit cards issued by the credit card companies and that the relatives received amounts equivalent to the purchases from you

2. Notes on describing this application

- (1) In "Your individual number" and "Individual number," describe the individual numbers of you, a spouse covered by the withholding exemption, dependents covered by the exemption or dependents who are under 16 years of age.

(Note) When certain requirements are met, there are some cases where you may not need to describe individual numbers. Check with the salary payer.
- (2) In "Corporate (individual) number of salary payer," the salary payer who receives this application describes its corporate or individual number.
- (3) "Primary salary" means a salary received from the salary payer to whom you submitted this application, and "Secondary salary" means a salary received from other salary payers.
- (4) If dependents covered by the exemption are elderly parents living together, check the box of "Elderly parent living together" in "Elderly dependents." If they are elderly dependents other than elderly parents living together, check the box of "Others."
Also, if dependents covered by the exemption are specific dependents, check the box of "Specific dependents."
- (5) In "Estimated income in 2019," fill in an amount after subtracting necessary expenses or the like from a revenue amount or the like. In this case, if the type of income is salary, the amount of employment income shall be an amount after subtracting deduction for employment income (650,000 yen if, for example, an income amount is less than 1,619,000 yen (the revenue amount shall be the maximum)) from a revenue amount.
With regard to nontaxable pension for surviving family, interest to which separate withholding taxation at source is applied, dividends on listed stocks that you chose not to file tax returns or the like, these shall not be included in the base income to determine (special) exemption for spouse and exemption for dependents.
- (6) If a spouse covered by the withholding exemption or dependents covered by the exemption are non-residents, put a circle in "Non-resident relatives."
- (7) In "Fact that he/she lives in the same household," describe the total amount remitted or the like to the relatives in 2019 at year-end adjustment if the dependents covered by the exemption are non-residents.
- (8) In "Contents at left," describe the following matters:
 - a. Persons with disabilities (special disabilities): Describe the facts that the persons fall under persons with disabilities (special disabilities) such as the condition of disabilities, the type of disability certificate and the date of issuance, or the level of disability (disability grade). If the persons are a spouse living in the same household or dependents, also describe the persons' names (whether living together or not in case of persons with special disabilities), their individual numbers (same as 2. (1) (Note) above), domicile or residence, birthdates, relationships with you and their estimated income in 2019. Except the persons' names, you can omit to describe the matters described in "Spouse covered by the withholding exemption," "Dependents covered by the exemption" or "Matters related to inhabitants tax."
Also, if the said spouse living in the same household or dependents are non-residents, describe as such, as well as the total amount remitted to the spouse living in the same household or dependents in 2019 (describe the total amount of remittances or the like at year-end adjustment).
 - b. Widow or widower: Describe the facts that you fall under a widow or widower such as bereavement, divorce or separation due to missing, and the names and estimated income in 2019 of child(ren) living in the same household. Also, describe the estimated income in 2019, if you fall under a widow stated in b. of "11) Widow," "12) Special widow" or "13) Widower" in 3.
 - c. Working student: Describe the name of school, the date of entrance, and the type of income and its estimated amount in 2019.
- (9) If there are two workers or more in your household, your dependents or the like (i.e. a spouse covered by the exemption, dependents covered by the exemption, a spouse living in the same household who falls under persons with disabilities, or dependents under 16 years of age) can be declared as other workers' dependents, or they can be divided within the household. In such cases, describe the names or the like of the dependents in "D."
- (10) In "Matters related to inhabitants tax," describe dependents under 16 years of age (born on or after Jan. 2, 2004).

If the persons are non-exempted dependents living in overseas (Note 1), put a circle in "Non-exempted dependents living in overseas." Also, if you put a circle there, you may be asked to submit documents concerning relatives and documents concerning remittances to the municipality of your address by March 16, 2020 (Note 2).

- (Note) 1. "Non-exempted dependents living in overseas" are dependents who do not have a domicile in Japan and are under 16 years of age.
2. If you have any queries regarding "Matters related to inhabitants tax," contact your municipality.
