

Header information form including tax authority name, dates, and various identification numbers.

Business year and filing date information, including checkboxes for document submission.

Main calculation table with columns for tax amounts and rows for various tax items like income tax, local tax, and foreign tax.

Blank space for additional information or signature.

Tax agent name and stamp area.